

GHOST in the Machine: Group B

Subject A is quiet, mild mannered, and deeply principled. He doesn't carry a gun.

Subject C is clumsy and seems ill suited to intelligence work. He tends to miss success by a small margin.

Subject J has worn so many masks, it's a wonder he hasn't developed a latex allergy.

Subject R recruited Subject U.

July 5 – Subject pressed a German woman into service in Zurich like an impromptu Uber driver.

July 11 – Subject was observed playing Baccarat and flirting with a beautiful woman.

August 27 – Subject was observed foiling the plans of an enemy who has an apparent twin, although much smaller in stature.

October 4 – Subject was observed driving a Lotus Elan and posing as a magazine reporter.
