

GHOST in the Machine: Group C

Subject D was found floating in the ocean with bullet wounds and trouble remembering how he got there.

Subject S is typically impeccably dressed, sporting a three-piece suit and bowler, which he can use as both shield and weapon.

Subject V works closely with other female agents, who are fiercely loyal to their boss.

Subject Z has bad teeth and anachronistic taste in clothing.

January 7 – Subject was observed drinking mojitos with his trigger-happy Irish girlfriend and his best friend, a former Navy SEAL and FBI informant.

August 30 – Subject retired after being swallowed by an interstellar cockroach.

November 22 – Subject was observed removing his shoe and speaking into it.

December 1 – Subject was under careful observation, but we can't remember what happened before a sudden bright flash of light.
